

Contents

2 EDITORIAL

Why do different reviewers hear different things?

4 FILL 'ER UP

Whither hi-res downloading? Wes Phillips reports from the US of A

Shabinian's Compass on page 6

6 POINTING THE WAY?

Omnidirectional speakers have always been controversial, but Malcolm Steward and Martin Colloms are both seduced by Shabinian's Compass.

11 STAN'S SAFARI 2

In which Stan discovers the virtues of simplicity – if in doubt, leave it out!

13 FOCAL CHORUS 706V

Martin Colloms checks out a likely leading budget speaker

16 BLU-RAY TOMORROW?

Will Blu-ray deliver high resolution digital music? Recording engineer Tony Faulkner attempts to pin down a moving target

18 NEVER CONNECTED

Chris Bryant describes and analyses an ingenious and radical approach to avoiding mains pollution

21 POINTS OF VIEW

Turntable design involves a host of compromises. We've asked eleven leading designers to highlight their priorities

30 MONOPULSE 42A

An interesting and unusual speaker from a relatively new British manufacturer

Rega P7 in the Record Player Group Test on page 34

34 RECORD PLAYER GROUP TEST

Martin Colloms and Chris Bryant carry out detailed lab and listening assessments of four mid-price turntable/arm combos

45 THE BEST OF CLASSICAL

Christopher Breunig reviews new releases of works by Mozart, Beethoven, Strauss and others

48 ROCK, POP AND OTHER NICE MUSIC

Nigel Finn listens to the latest from Goldfrapp, Counting Crows, Jon Lord and many more

52 SUBJECTIVE SOUNDS

Valve amps are increasingly hard to resist, and not all valves are created equal

The Points of View of eleven leading turntable designers on page 21