

Contents

2 EDITORIAL

Further thoughts on CD players, DACs and a bit of terminological pedantry

4 DARWIN'S LITTLE PLAN

A tongue-in-cheek Julian Musgrave tries to persuade us that technology has moral superiority

6 THE AN SUPER-TABLE

Martin Colloms spends quality time with Audio Note's massively powerful multi-motor TT-3 turntable

10 STAN'S SAFARI 3

Stan finds himself surrounded by a swamp of amplification

13 INTEGRATED MUSCLEAMP

Naim's powerful and flexible SUPERNAIT undergoes thorough HIFICRITIC analysis and evaluation

17 HI-FI MYTHS: TONE CONTROLS

Peter Thomas and Martin Colloms argue that tone controls should never have been relegated to the audiophile dog house.

19 VALVES WITH STYLE

Valve amps don't have to be ugly. Martin Colloms investigates whether the Mystere performs as well as it looks

23 A TALE OF TWO TRANSFORMER TYPES

Paul Houlden describes and explains the basics of this vital audio component

26 DOES THE i HAVE IT?

Naim has revamped its popular CD5i. Chris Bryant compares the new i version to its i predecessor.

30 FOUR CD PLAYERS.....AND A DAC

Chris Bryant evaluates classy CD players from Bel Canto, Exposure, Moon and Rega; then tries each with a very serious outboard MSB DAC.

43 MUSIC ON RECORD: ALFRED BRENDL

As Brendel retires from public performance, Christopher Breunig assesses the legacy of his recordings

45 THE BEST OF CLASSICAL

Christopher Breunig reviews new classical releases, of music from Bach to Schubert

48 ROCK, POP AND OTHER NICE MUSIC

Nigel Finn checks out an eclectic mix of modern music

52 SUBJECTIVE SOUNDS

Paul Messenger discusses speakers and speaker reviewing