

Contents

- 4 MUNICH HIGH END SHOW
Back after a three-year suspension, the world's leading high end audio event looked, and sounded, very familiar. But was that a good thing/
- 6 MIKE VALENTINE
From underwater film-maker to purist recorder of music, direct to disc or tape. Chris Frankland takes a deep dive into his ideas and techniques
- 10 STAN'S SAFARI
Our tame designer looks at the advantages and pitfalls of Class D amplifiers, and sees scope for their wider acceptance
- 12 MAGICO A3
Four years from his first listen, Martin Colloms finally gets to grips with Magico's 'affordable' floorstander – and finds it's still built to the same exacting standards, and delivers superb performance
- 16 MARANTZ MODEL 40N
Having launched a purist amplifier and network/SACD player combination, Marantz rings the changes with this appealing network-connected amplifier. But is it an amp with benefits, or an 'all-in-one' system?
- 20 ICON 4PRO
Handmade in the UK to order, this flexible passive line controller caught Kevin Fiske's attention. And now he's spent time listening to its, he's even more impressed
- 24 MEASURING SPEAKERS – IT'S ALL ABOUT THE BASS
Keith Howard takes an in-depth look at the problems of measuring speakers – especially if you don't have a field to hand and a 20m-tall tower lying around!
- 32 Q ACOUSTICS CONCEPT 50
Drawing on the technology of the company's hugely impressive Concept 500 flagship, this slender and beautifully-finished floorstander is capable of an entirely convincing sound - and is excellent value
- 36 PRIMALUNA EVO 400
Chris Kelly has long been a fan of the Dutch company's valve-powered amplifiers, and in this range-topping model he thinks he's found himself a keeper

- 40 ARETAI CONTRA 100S
They caught Chris Frankland's attention at a show – now these unusual-looking horn-tweetered speakers from Latvia have him sitting up and listening at home
- 42 AUDIOLAB OMNIA
With a strong background in amplifiers and all things digital, now Audiolab has launched its first 'just add speakers' system, complete with onboard CD player and more. Is it 'one box to rule them all'?
- 45 DYNAUDIO EMIT 20
With no less than 45 years of speaker-making experience behind it, this compact design from the Danish company sounds much bigger than its compact dimensions would suggest. Martin Colloms loves it!
- 47 RUSSELL K RED 120 SE
This 'special edition' version of the British company's floorstander finds a fan in Chris Frankland, who's impressed with its mix of power, weight and detail
- 50 SHAKNSPIN WOW&FLUTTER ANALYSER II
Not sure whether your turntable's behaving as it should? Steve Harris tries a simple tool from Portugal designed to lay bare your record player's fluctuations
- 52 MARK LEVINSON NO.5909
The first headphone model from the celebrated high-end brand is impressive – but could it be trying too hard to satisfy every personal listening requirement?
- 55 OPHIDIAN MAMBO 2
Developed and built in a new Northern speaker-making powerhouse, from Sheffield woodwork to assembly in The Wirral, these British floorstanders waste no time in winning over Chris Kelly
- 58 MUSIC
Our writers survey their latest acquisitions, from classical to hi-res releases, and the best secondhand vinyl buys
- 64 SOUNDSTAGE
Andrew Everard's glad to see that shows are back, but he suggests a bit more effort in demonstrations – and the music played – if new buyers are to be won over icOn's fine-sounding passive line stage, reviewed on p20

Slender, elegant and captivating: Q Acoustics' Concept 50, p32

Entry-level heavy metal? Magico's A3 reviewed by MC, p12